In their concern about the democracy, the opposition seem to forget that they are split up into antegonistic factions, with no prospect of passage of the "white law," many thousand company, and that they should seize upon every thing that savors the least of dissatisfac

Conference, M. E. Church.

Buxthern, —As a minority of the committee appointed at your last meeting to report upon the propriety of petitioning the next General Conference to change the practice and policy of the Church in regard to the appointment of effective preachers to Professorships in our Colleges &c., to edit our newspapers and magazines, and to the management of our book concerns &c., we would respectfully submit the following con-

ers. So with our traveling, collecting, soliciting and other agents, in every department of the Church. So with our representatives in the Bible and Foreign and Domestic Missionary Societies. Such a state of affairs—a condition of things going to affect the whole Church and every department of it, temporally, morally and intellectually, should be sustained, if at all, by powerful and conditions of life.

Section of a Printer—The Cincinnation of this expenses of the interval of the sunstained, if at all, by powerful and condition of this morally contains the following in regard to the violent death of a man clusive reasons.

2d. Is it expedient that a change of policity should be adopted, and if so, to what ing in regard to the violent death of a man well known in this city: "Saturday afternoon in the property of the part of the part of the substantion," and severtalis to our or organity benefit to clery mean and others of the highest respectability.

The Complaints is a daily tho of instances, he filled with due credit and ability, any more than it proves that all teachers are Dr. Thompsans. But in this connection the greatest ground for complaint lies in the frest that as many preachers are taken from their regular work and quietly imprisoned within the harrow confines of little academics. These are not our weak or ordinary men who are thus dispused of. WILL buy and sell on Commission Rank but the strongest and most accomplished pulpit orators in the suveral conference. pulpit orators in the ascreral conferences— Let but the citizens of some country village fake it into their heads to open out a female seminary, and the very best talent of the conference is at command, while the great thoroughfares and crowded churches in our cities, and the waste pieces of Zion, are deonsideration from all our conferences.

The almost exclusive employment of effective ministers to manage the Book Con-cerns, and to control the Bible and Missions ary Societies, is still more open to criticism and objection. It would be difficult, we apprehend, to give any good reason why a preacher should be selected to manage and financier a great book and publishing estab-lishment. Surely not on account of his su-perior business character and maneial ability? Preachers, as a class, from their edu-cation, mode of thinking, and professional an early adjustment of their differences, and engagaments, are peculiarly disqualified for with the probability of remaining forever at outs." Added to this, they have lost, by the lishing house, requiring an investment and names of the "white law." many thousand return of bundreds of thousands of dollars votes in the State; and this has not contribu-ted to increase their amisbility in their present disorganized condition. It is natural, then, that our opponents should cast about for miserable out, then, as a matter of policy, the course pursued is erroneous. It would be far bet-every thing that savors the least of dissatisfaction is our ranks, for the purpose of deriving some solace from it. If they can do so we ought not to object; for the — knows they need all they can get.
